

Quick guide to access information online

www.hoodrivercounty.gov/tax

On the above website, find and click on the blue account information button:

ACCOUNT INFORMATION

Search for your account by entering the tax account number, name or physical address.

- Search hint: use the least information for best results, such as search using just the street number or last name and then look through results.

Review the results to find and click on the account you want to research.

Example:

Account 12913
